Italy to Austria: HI! Thought we'd drop in and make a visit. Hope you don't mind.

Italy: After Difficulty with his Cabinet, His Majesty, King of Italy has been given plenipotentiary powers. This act has been taken to insure the solidarity of all foreign alliances and to clear up the lack of communication caused by recent stirs among members of the pacifist movement in Italy (all of whom have been shot).

Germany-GM:Will I get the unit I am short?

GM-Germany! Yes, in a manner of speaking. This upcoming Winter Adjustment for 1902 will permit you to build units to which you are entitled (provide you have a vacant home center upon which to build them). The number of builds to which you are entitled is determined by the number of supply centers you own and the number of units already on board. Even if you are forced to play short because of a previously lost build or destroyed unit, you may rebuild it if you are entitled to the build and you have an empty home supply center upon which to place a build. In your case, you are entitled to one build this winter season.

England! Happy Lincoln's birthday, Valentine's Day, George Washington's birthday!

1902 FALL RETREATS, WINTER BUILDS AND 1903 SPRING MOVES ARE DUE BY MARCH 16, 1985. FRANCE SHOULD SUBMIT CONTINGENCY BUILDS, DEPENDING ON ENGLAND'S RETREATS. ALL PLAYERS MAY SUBMIT CONTINGENCY MOVES DEPENDING ON RETREATS AND BUILDS. IF ANY TWO PLAYERS REQUEST A SEPARATION OF SEASONS, I WILL GRANT IT, BUT EVERYONE SHOULD SUBMIT MOVES JUST IN CASE THE SEASONS ARE NOT SEPARATED. SEE HRS.

London-World: The refined English care only to drink some tea in the finer locations of the world. We bring our message in peace, which is peace.

London-Paris: Sorry to see you leave, buddy, take care and good luck in school. I know you'll be back when time permits.

Clough-GM: I am extremely sorry to be forced to do this, but I have no choice. I must resign from both of my games, FC and DIP. Too many things have come up at once, and therefore, I must budget my time. I have made myself vow never to NMR, so here are my orders for France.

GM-Clough: I am sorry to see you leave our game, but thank you for doing so in a responsible manner and resigning in accordance with HR19. A refund of unused subscription issues and your NMR fee is also being sent to you.

NOTICE: Per the above resignation, we have an opening. I have found a player willing to act as a permanent standby, picking up France from this point on. The new player for FRANCE is STAN PLUMMER, 6613 Azalea Dr., Springlake NC 28390.

GM-Players: See especially rules 9)Economics, 10)Building and Maintaining Units and 12)Negotiations. Winter Maintenance and Builds or Disbands will be due by March 16, 1985, as a separate season. Winter will always be a separate season for FC because of the numerous build and removal possibilities which make conditional orders impractical.

Press!

BRA-USA: People like to deal with humans, not computers that need their capacitors readjusted. Tell your outdated bag of nuts and bolts called Fogbotham (by the way that model created in England in 2085 has been replaced by a much newer model - but then you Americans have been behind the times since 2075) to call my bluff. You don't realize your holding a pair of black aces and eights, fool.

EGY-FOGBOTHAM: Is it possible that some mice may have built a nest in your Mark IV Computer?

EGY-AUS & CHI: It is the wish of the Indian people to unite with the great Pan Arab league in its Jihad against the infidels. We will make our own Salt!

EGY-SAF: Remember the words of the prophet: "Do not give up hope, for within every desert you may find an oasis."

TASS - The People Republic of China, in a deliberate and unprovoked attack, invaded the motherland today at dawn. Millions of Bahl's followers stormed the boundry seperating the Soviet Union from the People's Republic of China. Only after hard and bitter fighting were the Red masses turned back in retreat. General Secretary Daniels has called upon the people of the Motherland to defend the one, true bastion of communism from its outside invaders. "For this criminal and imperialist action, we must never rest as a nation until the Chinese masses are effectively defeated. May the world view this hostility with as much anger and outrage as we of the Soviet Union do."

from the desk of Secretary of State Fogbotham

GREETING!

I regret to report conditions as registered by my geopolitical sensor banks have taken an alarming turn. I must say Brazil's software is not at user friendly. We have burned out our fifth Portugese translation device last week, but ABL's crack engineering staff assures me things well be "bossa nova" in no time. Alas, their junta refuses an agreement.

We have a number of complaints regarding the Pan-Arab League. It is of paramount importance tha the desk of Ambassador Hogwilde be returned unharmed. We will be quite upset if a number of initials in Arabic are carved into the surface. Also, we are getting sick and tired of hearing of public rallies led by members of your government who lead unstable elements of the local populace in shouting "Death to the furniture of the enemies of God. Death to the desk of Satan." We simply cannot have this sort of thing.

On the brighter side, Secretary Fogbotham carded a sizzling 67 to capture a share of second place in the Mare Imbrium Pro-Am. Great going Mr. Secretary.

Questions which have been submitted follow, along with my answer:

1) Can you convoy Nukes or Planes in FCIII?

ans. Yes, both Planes and Nukes may be convoyed in the same manner as a Army. See Rules 6.A.3 and 7.A.1

2) If a unit is Nuked, does it have an effect on the unit(s) it is supporting?

ans. Units are not Nuked, Provinces are Nuked. The distinction is important because the effect of Nuking a province destroys all units in that province, moving through or supporting into the nuked province. Units which moved out are not affected, and any unit in another province which was supported by a unit in a province which was nuked are not affected, except that they do not receive the support of a unit destroyed by a nuke. See Rule 7.C.1

SPECIAL NOTICE: Andy Clough (SAF) has resigned from FCIII. I have located a standby player, Lex Lambert, 2725 W. Friendship, Harvey LA 70058, who has agreed to take over SAF. Winter builds will be submitted by Mr. Lambert. My thanks to Andy Clough who followed by DIP HR's and submitted final orders with his resignation. Mr. Clough's NMR fee and unused subscription will be returned to him, accordingly.

The WINTER 2101 orders are due March 16, 1985.

TAXES UP...WAGES DOWN...LOCAL SUPPORT FOR THE KING (GP): Despite increased taxes and cuts in military pay, the people voiced support for their King and the King's party was dominant on the political front. Austerity measures to replenish the treasury have been eased and government officials are again receiving full pay although the military are still seeing heavy cuts in their paychecks. Since tax increases were modest the King retained the good will of the people and the few outbreaks of violence were not allowed to get out of hand. Unfortunately, malcontents in the army did not allow full force to be brought to bear on those revolting against taxes, indeed some refused to take arms against the offenders, so pockets of resentment still exist in the provinces.

Among those who did admirably defend his Majesty's tax collectors were Messrs. Bezukhov, LeMoyné, Gerard and Poisson, the latter was severely wounded while performing his duty. LeChevalier LeMoyné was promoted to full Brigadier General and Brevet Lt. General and was appointed Provincial Military Governor for his efforts. M. Gerard, who campaigned despite grievous wounds, was knighted and Baron Bezukhov was awarded the title of Marquis, but a potential promotion to Lt. Col. was vetoed by the outgoing Field Marshall. Presumably Le Marquis de Bic had taken offence at being denounced before the King by Messrs. Bezukhov and Lafayette as having been the cause of the recent disaster at the treasury. It is said M. Bezukhov raised the point that it was surely the Marquis expensive and needless Spring campaign, fostered by quest for personal glory, combined with gross negligence in overseeing the defense spending that had driven the country to near bankruptcy. Count Lafayette was heard crying "The Chancellor speaks the truth" from the back of the room. Despite the fact that M. Bic was not present to defend himself, the King refused to accept this argument and berated the Chancellor and Minister for having raised it. Leaving the courtroom in dismay, Count Lafayette was heard to say, "but with all the influence you brought to bear, I'm amazed that the King was not swayed" to which Bezukhov responded, "Influence, bah. I used that elsewhere. I counted on my eloquence to convince the King."

Also, seeing action this season were newcomer Alexi Stravinski, who, after being turned away by the Princess Louisa Lt. Dragoons, won a place as captain in the 53rd Fusiliers and immediately went off to campaign with the RNHB regiment, and Subaltern Calieu Calais, who so impressed Brigadier General Oeuf de la Coq that the latter agreed to take him under his wing, so to speak, and teach the boy to be a soldier.

M. de Fer has joined the Cardinal's Guard as a major. He now wears a rapier beside his pistols.

Note! Corrections have been made to the finances of M. Poisson.

Note too! Everyone please give me dueling orders for your weapon of choice & indicate if you will accept a duel using another weapon. If not, you may be forced to lose status. If the person who made a challenge is not clear, a die roll will determine the challenger and thus the choice of weapons.

Players are reminded to submit the Fall 1619 En Garde moves not later than March 9, 1985 to THE KING, 206 SCHOOL STREET, FAIRFIELD, CT, 06430 or at the January meeting of the Connecticut Game Club.

Even before the British Army could depart for the Continent, troops on both sides have swung into action. by a small force at Magdeburg. Tilly took the town by storm, burning it to the ground and putting an estimated 40,000 inhabitants to the sword.

While Catholics celebrated a "second St Bartholomew's Day," Protestants of every stripe raised cries of anguish. Typical was this excerpt from Bishop Laud's sermon of Sunday last: "Magdeburg shows us the brutal determination of our enemies. This wanton crime, which shocks the conscience of Christendom, shows the need for all good English Protestants to rally behind the Church of Eng."

NAVAL NOTES: Ens Mark Addlebury, who has reportedly been successful treating tooth decay amongst the crew of HMS Codfish, is said to be preparing a treatise on dental care on shipboard...A new face on the RN flagship, Royal Sovereign is Midshipman Lord Harrison Ford Burke, first son of the Marquess of Loxley.

Speaking of HMS Royal Sovereign, the rumours reported in this space last time are true! As the fleet headed for the Continent, men o'war Royal Sovereign and HMS Golden Lion veered off to the north, carrying aboard them a diplomatic mission to representatives of the Czar of Moskua, for a meeting to take place at the small White Sea trading post of Archangel. The Talks are aimed at bringing the Muscovites into the Anti-Imperialist coalition. Thus, Ens Reggie Parksrow spent his wedding night forlornly staring at the midnight sun off the North Cape of Norway. Middie Harry Burke is said to have comforted the ensign, saying "Reggie, this looks like the beginning of a beautiful relationship.

Meanwhile, Lady Sarah, one of London's loveliest, has suffered from a surfeit of romance of late. First, ex-beau Lewellyn ap Morgan returned, saying, "what a fool I've been". While the Lady seemed to be glad enough to have the Welsh doctor back, she is taking a "wait and see" attitude on the Porfessor's marriage proposal. Could it have something to do with the man in navy whites she was seen with just before the fleet sailed?

Meanwhile, a suddentshakeup in the cavalry to be sent on campaign has coupled the Scot's Greys with the Drumandrochit Dragoons to form a Scots Cavalry Brigade. Lt Col Herbie Hambone is said to be disappointed, because he had planned to spend some time with the Queen comparing notes on her and Mrs Hambone's pregnancies.

HMS Portsmouth was rocked by an explosion in her powder magazines, which appears to have been deliberately set. Several Irish Seamen, when questioned about the incident replied, "It was done for Paddy McBurke!" The hangings are expected the first week in June. The Admiralty is full of rumours about a secret society called the Paddy McBurkes, dedicated to mutiny and rebellion.

Orders are due March 9, 1985, as usual.

Marching proudly ashore, Fenisque C. Perceival arrives in Calabar and begins to organize an expedition to march into the heart of Africa for the purpose of searching out and destroying wild African animals. upon arriving ashore, Perceival is rumored to have said, "one step for a small man, one big gun for Africa."

Guided by faith, and the flow of the river down stream, GUIDO VITTORIO SCONZINE continues down what he believes to be the Nile. As his expedition enters hex 251, which is a jungle hex with the river flowing into hex 252, He is confronted by 96 warriors of the Suk tribe. After praying for Divine guidance, he offers the chief 32 gifts. The chief remembers the Father from previous visit and allows him to trade with the tribe, but must spend the rest of the turn with the tribe. He finds that he can buy 4 rations for one gift. He prepares to move on next turn.

LADY CAROLINE NELSON decides to move northeast around the swamp to the north of her, but becomes lost in the attempt. Her guides walk away in disgust, tired of taking orders from a woman. Her hunters provide the expedition with 2 rations each.

A naked, screaming, half-crazed wildman stumbles into the port city of Launda. The fact that the man is reported to have said something about a great white ape lends credence to the rumor that ALFRED H. MCGUFFIN has made it across Africa. The Portuguese officers are detaining the man for questioning.

DR. NOTS G. NIVIL follows the river source he discovered flowing in direction 3 into hex 379, which is a jungle hex. The river continues on in direction 5 into hex 396. The doctor manages to stay alive for another turn discovering nothing of importance.

DR. HYPO GUY CEMIA decides that it is time to stop and have a bon-bon break. The good doctor's guide decides that he no longer wants any part of this man and leaves. Hunters provide the expedition with 3 rations each. The good doctor remains in hex 136 this turn.

ORTE'GO DE DAGO spends this turn studying the Kavirondo Tribe by staying in his hut. He does not feel very good. He may hire bearers for six gifts, Askaris for 2 gifts and guides for 1 gift. One gift will buy 2 rations. His army feeds itself this turn.

MADemoiselle ROXY LARUE spends this turn studying the habits of the black Namba snake that she discovered in this hex. How she is going to bring this specimen back to civilization is going to be interesting.

PROFESSOR HUMBERT HUMBERT moves into hex 434, which is a veldt hex, with musket in hand. He encounters 12 scouts from a slaving party who shoot first and do not ask questions.
